City Council Seeks Applicants to Fill 2 Seats on the Council

ORANGE CITY – For immediate release

The City of Orange City is currently seeking dedicated individuals to fill both vacancies on the City Council in light of resignations tendered by the District 1 Council Member and At Large Council Member on December 29, 2023.

During the City Council Meeting on January 9, 2024, the remaining 5 members reviewed the selection process and chose a deadline for applications of noon, Monday, January 29, 2024 to adhere to the City Charter.

A selection process will involve a thorough review of applications, followed by interviews with potential candidates on Monday, February 5, 2024. The newly appointed members will serve until the next scheduled election in November, 2024.

Interested applicants can find additional details and application forms on the City of Orange City website or by contacting the City Clerk, Kaley Burleson at 386-775-5403.
