	Council Meeting

If you are interested in serving as a member on one of these Boards, complete the application on the other side of this information sheet and return it to the City Clerks Office at 229 E. Graves Ave. All board members are appointed by the City Council. All meetings are held in City Council Chambers, at 201 N. Holly Avenue. Further information on any of the Boards can be obtained by calling the City Clerk's Office at (386)775-5403.

Planning Commission: The Planning Commission reviews and considers applications and site plans for new development to determine consistency with Orange City's Comprehensive Plan. They also consider applications for rezoning and re-designation of land uses, annexations, and supplemental uses. Meetings are held the first Wednesday of each month.

Historic Preservation Board: The purpose of the HPB is to promote, restore, and preserve structures within the City that are significant to Orange City's historic past. Meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month.
